

The day the music spoke

One day, the music spoke to Aviya, a girl of India.

The music that has spoken to her was Scandinavian music of a popular folksinger.

The music spoke to her and reminded her that India too had good classical and folk music.

Now Aviya, took to learning classical Carnatic music.

However, as it happened, Aviya had a sore throat one day.

That day, she could not sing so she heard some Carnatic Music by MS Subbalaskmi. Again, the music spoke to her.

And told her she sang well. She was happy to hear this.

